10 Minutes with Eric Conley - The voice of Barry White

09/07/2011

Eric Conley was born in Arlington, Georgia on August 15, 1962. Born into a family known nationally Evangelista, Eric was immersed in music since the beginning. Today it is the living voice of Barry White, has acted in the Millionaires' White Party this summer in Marbella. i-Marbella offers you the exclusive interview with this talented singer!

At age 11, began singing in various gospel sites, which gave him immediate recognition soul music. With a good ear for pitch and harmony, Eric quickly absorbed the fundamentals of music, being able to listen to a musical arrangement and immediately play several different instruments.

In high school, Eric enjoyed sports, but, inspired by his musical hero, the great Barry White, worked hard to become a musician of confidence. At the University of Maryland, where he majored in Business Administration, turned down an athletic scholarship to better concentrate on their studies. Once out of the Army, Eric assumed his new character as the most important singer of the Soul in Europe. After performing hundreds of gigs singing the classic Soul and R & B of the 70, 80 and 90, Eric decided to specialize in music of the legendary Barry White. With Eric's unique voice, he soon discovered that there was no other vocalist in the world that can accurately emulate the voice of Barry White "The Voice of Love" ended up forming the "Love Unlimited Orchestra".

1. How did you find that music was your passion?

As far as I can remember, used to follow the footsteps of my father and his small group of churches! That's what sparked that passion.

2. Instead of music business courses in college? Why?

I completed the race because I felt it necessary to have the knowledge and tools to be successful in my music, and music came naturally to me.

3. Why was living in Europe, particularly Germany?

I enjoy the culture and also less complicated to connect to the rest of the world from here!

4. Do you think it is easier to be a singer here in the U.S.?

Let's say there is less competition here ..

5. Why was his idol Barry White? What I admire about him?

It is the connection of the identity of the inner beauty to be happy and free! It is because I can be me, and represent the same time! It's how I could compose, do you most admire and also their ability to say what others were thinking.

6. How he got the idea of Barry White Experience?

I was looking for an easy way for fans to remember Barry and connect with my project at the same time. This is not a tribute, but rather an elite show "Remembering Mr. Barry White."

7. Does it bother you that sometimes is considered an imitation of Barry, rather than a new artist? Do you also write your own music?

From my point of view! It is an honor for me to be able to keep the memory of this man and his music, the most important is that we can keep this love for a lifetime!

8. What do you consider your greatest achievement?

I would say that to survive the war.

9. What are your ambitions now?

For now I'm finishing my album and always looking to improve.

10. What are you working now?

At the moment I'm working on my album "LOVE MAKING MUSIC", will leave for the year 2012.

11. What are your other passions besides music?

I love art and travel, to induce other cultures.

12. He has performed at the "White party Millionaire" What do you think of the Costa del Sol?

Wow! It was a fantastic experience! I liked the atmosphere and being surrounded by lovely people! It's a party I will not forget for a long time. I love to go there with a little more time to explore my next visit!
